

What's new in the mid-Hudson Valley business scene for Sept. 3

Sep. 2, 2013 11:15 PM |

poughkeepsiejournal.com

Hospital foundation names three trustees — Three new trustees have been named to the board of the Foundation for Vassar Brothers Medical Center, Poughkeepsie. They are Kimberly Hunt Lee, Kip Bleakley O'Neill and Stan Beinstein.

Hunt Lee is an attorney with McCabe and Mack and has served as a board member for Hospice Inc. and the Dutchess County Regional Chamber of Commerce. Bleakley O'Neill is a former minority leader with the Dutchess County Legislature and has served as a member of the Dutchess Community College board of trustees and the board of Eleanor Roosevelt Center at Val-Kill. Beinstein is a marketing consultant and former vice president for sales and marketing at Radio Woodstock. His leadership roles have included board service with the Jewish Community Center of Dutchess County and Dutchess County Stadium Corp.

ETC.

yeah!

Children's museum begins corporate member program — The Mid-Hudson Children's Museum, Poughkeepsie, welcomed 12 businesses as founding members for its new corporate member program.

Community Catalyst Members are Marriott Residence Inn and TEG Federal Credit Union. Partner Members are Central Hudson Gas & Electric Co., Hudson Valley Federal Credit Union and PDQ Printing. Contributor Members are The Chazen Companies, Marshall & Sterling Insurance, Sono-Tek and Yellowbook. Basic Corporate Members are Fortress Financial Advisory, LLC, Greystone Programs and Wineracks.com

Corporate membership is designed to help the the museum achieve its mission of enlightening minds through a fun and creative learning environment. This program provides an opportunity to businesses to invest in the community, their employees and the museum through unrestricted annual giving.

For more information, visit www.mhcm.org

Send listings to biznews@poughkeepsiejournal.com. Fax to 845-437-4921 or mail to P.O. Box 1231, Poughkeepsie, NY 12601.