Mid-Hudson Children’s Museum in Poughkeepsie hosts ‘Celebrate Summer’ on June 24

Posted: 06/19/16, 7:31 PM EDT | Updated: 1 day ago

WHAT: Children’s event, “Celebrate Summer”

WHEN: June 24 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

WHERE: Mid-Hudson Children’s Museum, 75 N. Water St., Poughkeepsie

DETAILS: “Celebrate Summer” is the museum’s annual summer kickoff event. “Learning All Summer Long” is the theme of this year’s event. It will include live performances, demonstrations and hands-on activities for families with young children at the museum’s waterfront location. Youngsters can partake in activities like making and launching stomp rockets, gardening, building with Imagination Playground, exploring live butterflies and bugs, racing rain gutter boats, investigating “Bubble Land” and more. There will also be performances by the Energy Dance Company and the Percussion Orchestra of Kingston, as well as an interactive class by Dance XCross Fitness (DXF). In addition, the Two by Two Zoo will also be on hand with their live animal petting zoo. Tickets are $12, $8 for museum events.
