United Way honors community service

COMMENT 0 Recommend 8 1

The United Way of the Dutchess-Orange Region honored Orange and Rockland Utilities with the organization's Exemplary Campaign Award at United Way's Celebration of Service Awards dinner at Anthony's Pier 9 in New Windsor. Since 1993, O&R and its bargaining unit, IBEW Local 503, have donated nearly $4 million in employee contributions and shareholder matches to the United Way. Pictured from left, are O&R's United Way Campaign Co-Chair Brian McPartland, IBEW Local 503 business manager, and Melissa Breidinger, O&R support operations unit manager; Local 503 President Scott Jensen, and O&R Director of Financial Services Ken Kosbr. The United Way of the Dutchess-Orange Region celebrated the conclusion of its 2014 Campaign for the Common Good with a Celebration of Service Awards event this month.

Steven Lant, the Distinguished Leadership Award recipient, was recognized for three decades of service to the community. Lant, who retired in October as CEO of Central Hudson Gas & Electric, served on the Dutchess County board of the United Way from 1997 to 2008, as its chair from 2003 to 2005, as interim leader in 2004, and as interim president and CEO from November 2014 through March 18, 2015.

Other award recipients included:

Exemplary Campaign Awards: Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp., C&S Wholesale Grocers, IBM Corporation, Orange and Rockland Utilities and United Parcel Service

Extraordinary Employee Community Ment Awards: The Cary Institute of Ecosystem Studies and Vanacore, DeBenedictis, Di Giovanni and Weddell
